

After School Activities

Promontory School may have some after school extra-curricular activities as budget allows. All extra-curricular activities must be board approved, curriculum related and support the mission and values of the school.

Promontory School will ensure that all extra-curricular activities will be offered equally and openly to all students without regard to gender, as required by Title IX, Education Amendment of 1972.